NEW HORIZONS AND PERSPECTIVES OF THE WORLD AFTER CORONA VIRUS (COVID-19)

The COVID-19 or coronavirus, pandemic has revealed many weaknesses in the global system. Despite our accumulated experience in crisis management, this virus has been able to isolate us all in our homes.

The question now is: will it lead to change?

Are we on the cusp of a new horizons, a new era that will be a significant turning point in world history? Or, once we are past this period, will the world go back to the way it was before.

Of course not, everything will be different.

NEW HORIZONS AND PERSPECTIVES OF THE WORLD AFTER CORONA VIRUS (COVID-19)

The topic of the discussion are not the concerns about the economic downturn and global recession, which is due to hit multiple industries as it did in 2008. Instead it is like to overview the moments to point out how, this time, we could be witnessing a true restructuring of the global system.

These are few points that are foresighted, logically:
There will be a shift in the balance of world power, where the scale will tip more towards China, and the Asian countries will recover before the U.S.

NEW HORIZONS AND PERSPECTIVES OF THE WORLD AFTER CORONA VIRUS (COVID-19)

There will be a long-term decrease in business travel due to the emergence of video-conferencing tools, with High Net Worth Individuals preferring to travel via private jet as opposed to first-class air travel.

Increased confidence in technology, technical performance, and online payment sectors are causing a change in consumer behavior, away from traditional methods. This forces us to adapt to new trends, such as working from home, and move towards a future that could be free of brick-and-mortar offices at large.

NEW HORIZONS AND PERSPECTIVES OF THE WORLD AFTER CORONA VIRUS (COVID-19)

There will be social change that recognizes the side of life that we might have been too busy to acknowledge before. The international community has joined together in global empathy to stand united. Philanthropic initiatives have been created and humanitarian aid offered as billionaires donated millions of dollars to help save people's lives.

The positive impact that this pandemic has had on our environment will last. NASA and the ESA both found that there had been a drop in nitrogen dioxide in parts of China and Italy in March. Meanwhile, the Center for International Climate Research in Oslo estimates there will be a 1.2% decline in carbon dioxide emissions in 2020, using global GDP forecasts from the OECD.
