

Understanding the UK's New Digital Immigration System

A comprehensive guide from Briton Solicitors

The Digital Shift

What is an eVisa?

The UK Government is replacing physical immigration documents with a secure digital record — the eVisa. This online record holds your immigration status and can be accessed, shared, and verified at any time.

Prove Status Online

Verify your immigration status digitally — no physical documents required.

View Visa Conditions

Access your visa conditions, permissions, and entitlements instantly.

Share with Employers

Share your status securely with employers, landlords, and authorities.

Secure Access

Manage all your immigration information through your personal UKVI account.

Who Needs an eVisa?

Most people with a UK immigration status will require an eVisa. This includes:

- Skilled Worker Visa holders
- Students on UK study visas
- Family Visa holders
- Indefinite Leave to Remain holders
- Most migrants with UK immigration status

Keep your UKVI account details and email address up to date at all times to avoid issues accessing your immigration status.

Digital Travel Permission

What Is an ETA?

The Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) is a digital permission to travel to the UK, required for eligible visitors who do not need a full visa before departure.

Before travelling, visitors must:

Apply online in advance

Receive approval before departure

Travel using the passport linked to the ETA

⊗ Travelling without an ETA may result in refused boarding, travel delays, or denial of entry at the UK border.

eVisa vs. ETA — Key Differences

Though both are digital, they serve very different purposes. Understanding which applies to you is essential.

EVISA FOR PEOPLE LIVING, WORKING OR STUDYING IN THE UK. CONFIRMS IMMIGRATION ACCOUNT.

PASSPORT. & TA KVI ETA FOR ELIGIBLE SHORT-TERM VISITORS. TRAVEL PERMIS PERMISSION ONLY. LINKED TO PASSPORT. APPLIED BEFORE DEPARTURE.

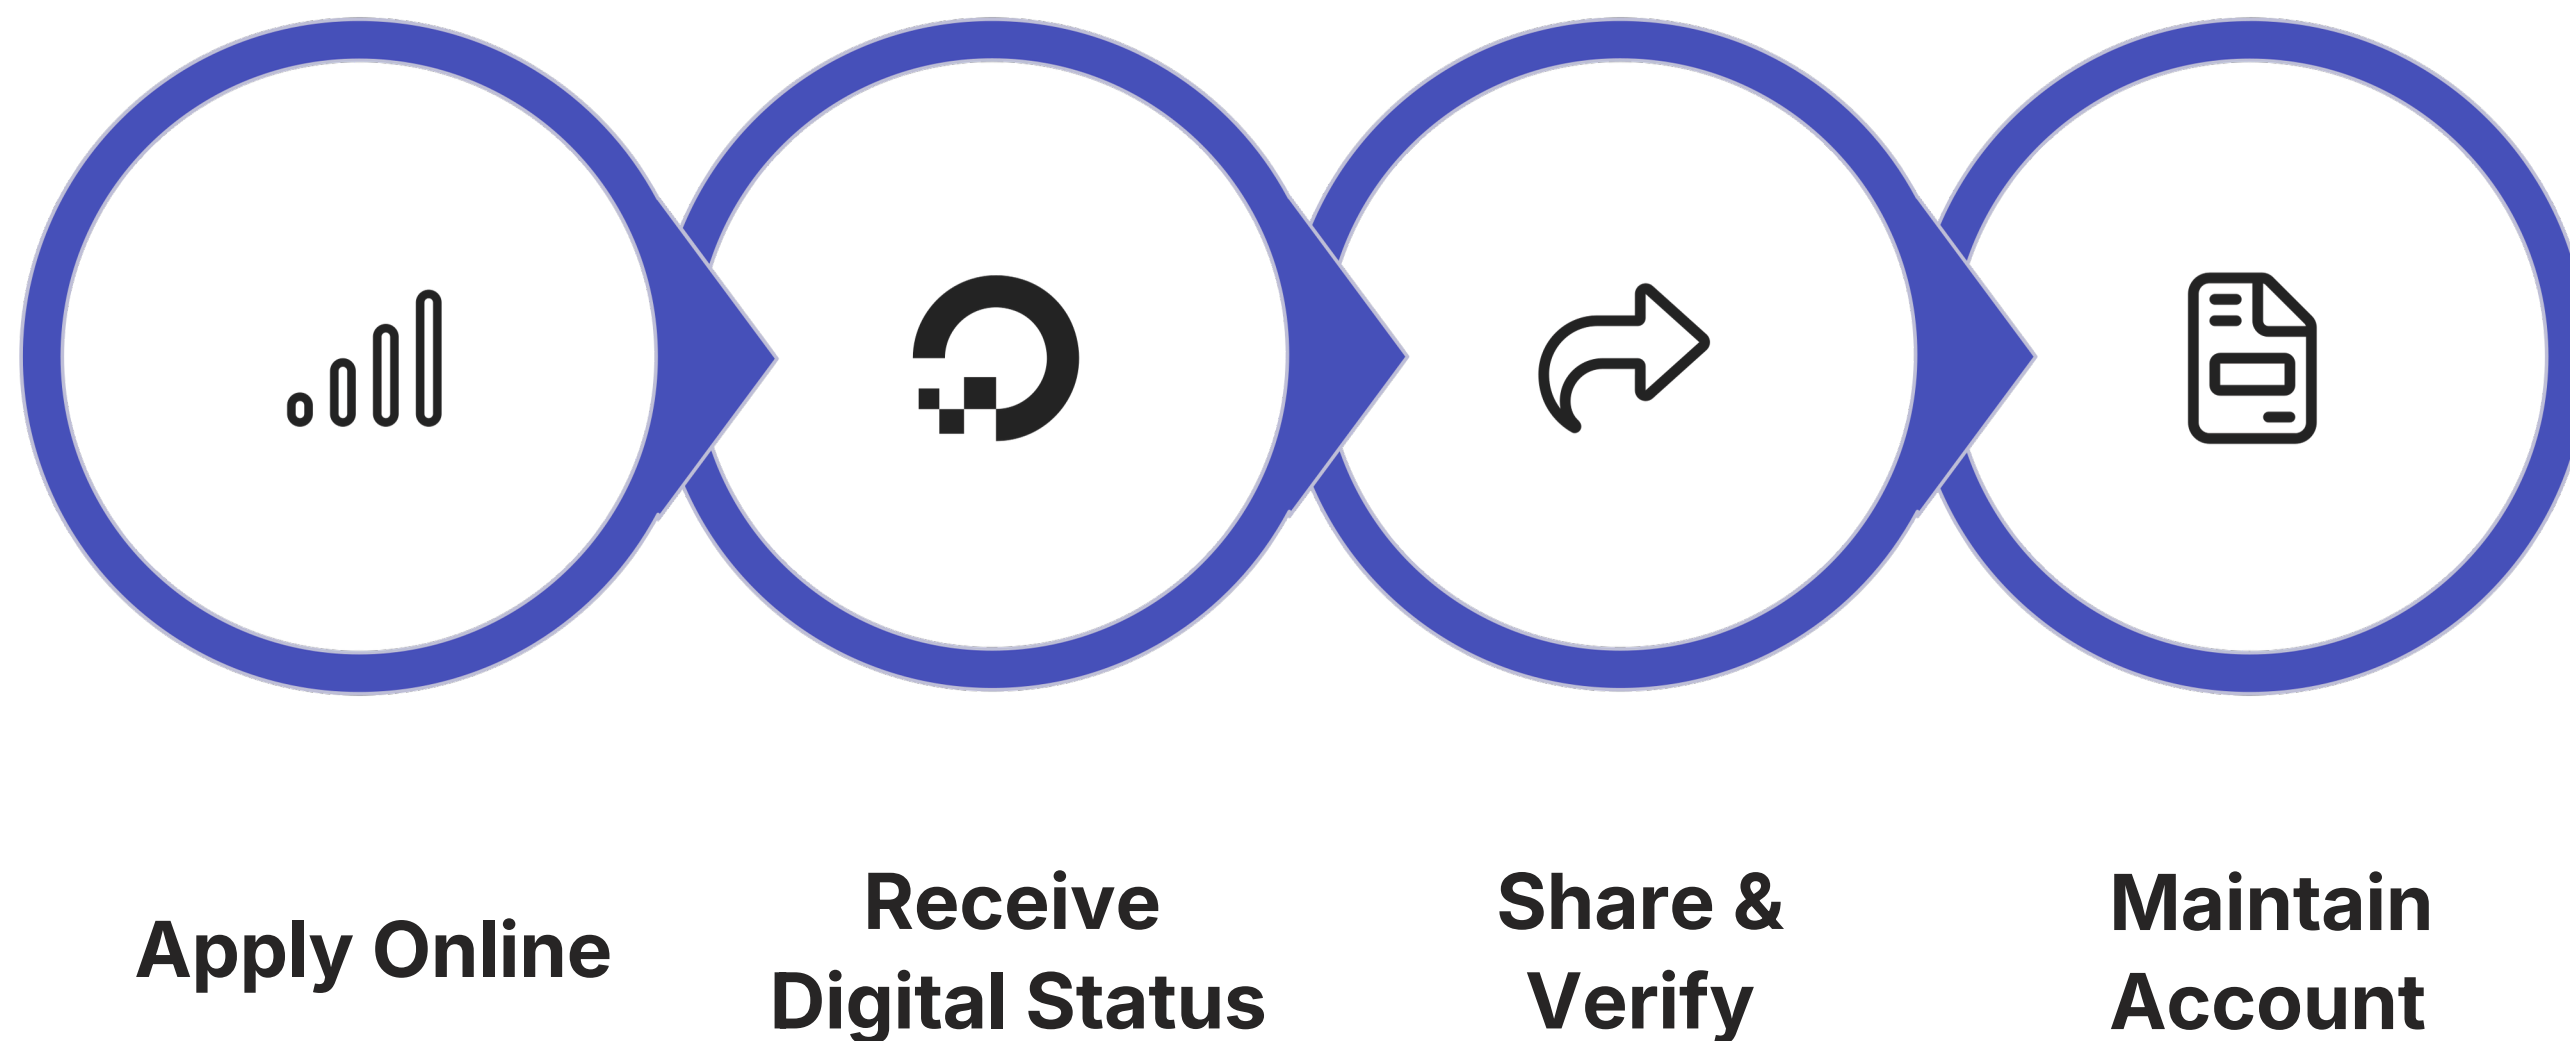

eVisa

Confirms the immigration status of individuals living, working, or studying in the UK. Accessed via a UKVI account.
